SISTER MARY OF SAINT OVIDE

Ex-Superior

It is with sincere pleasure that the Senior Class of 1960 dedicate their year book the VICTORIA to SISTER MARY OF SAINT OVIDE r.s.r. on the 50th anniversary of her religious profession in the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of the Holy Rosary.

Her work as Superior and teacher at Saint Martin of Tours School during the six years from 1948 to 1956 has assured us of the deep devotion and kindly interest she feels in our spiritual and moral welfare.

Her name and the remembrance of her many kindly acts will glow engraved in letters of gold in our memory and hearts forever.

I would rather build Jesus Christ in the heart of a youth than the loftiest cathedral upon the earth because churches are destroyed but the heart of a youth in which the image of Christ is engraved will live forever. (James Cardinal McGuigan)

Having reached the SENIOR year of our secondary education we will press ever ONWARD to higher summits of knowledge and of truth until we reach our fulfillment in God.

LINDA ARSENAULT

Our representative at Girls' State, a dutiful student conscious of her responsibilities, society may depend on her. She will continue to be an honor to her Alma Mater.

CAROL ALBERT

Carol is the typical modern business woman. Shorthand to her is just a maze of hieroglyphics. Her plans for the future include an office equipped with the latest in dictaphones and automatic transcribers. She excels on the typewriter when she remembers to turn on the switch.

DIANE CASTONGUAY

Two years Sodality prefect. This alone speaks for itself. Diane is the ever-ready-to-lend-a helping-hand type, who has taught devotion to duty not by word but by example. We know that she will continue her apostolate in the world of tomorrow.

MICHAEL BROWN

Fun-loving, easy going. Michael is one of the most likeable seniors at St. Martin's. With his brains and personality he can rise to the heights. . . . if he chooses to.

MARLENE MARTIN

Marlene's smiling disposition and her agreeable manners have made her a general favorite of the student body ever since her arrival at St. Martin's. She is a sincere and efficient worker and we know that her cheerful smile will be missed by many of the underclassmen when she graduates.

PATRICIA LAPLANTE

Why did we nickname her "Mousie"? Not because of her retiring dispositions. Not because of her happy character! Perhaps because she can intimate her happy dispositions into every circle she happens to be! She is sought after, not chased.

WALTER DUPREY

"Dunnie" the class comedian. An ardent worker, he likes to test his ability by solving intricate mathematical problems, but above all delights in making people laugh.

NORMA DESCHAINE

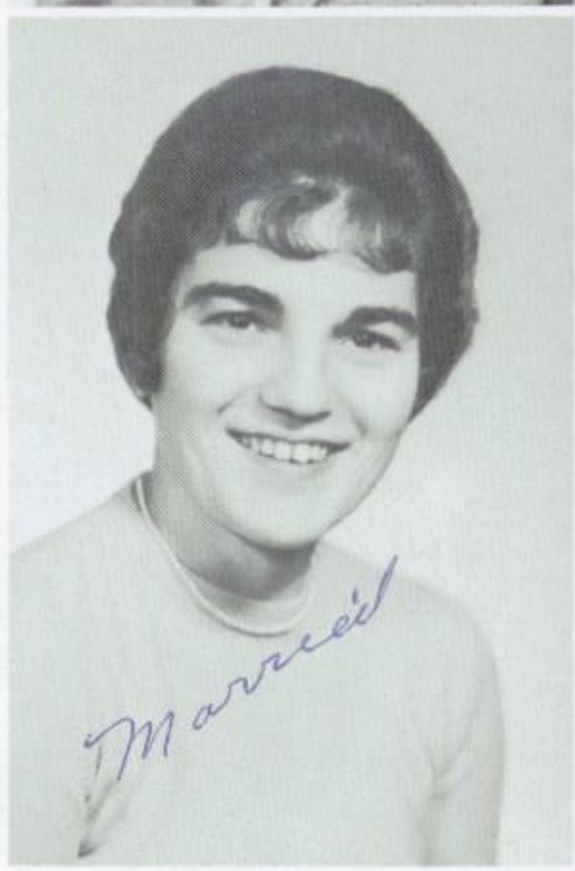
Editor-in-chief of the Victoria, of the DeTour, cheerleader, active member of the Sodality and Glee Club. Norma will continue to contribute to the welfare of those around her.

MADELINE LEVEILLE

If Madeline is as circumspect in life as she is in driving her car, she will not be the author of any rash deeds. Depend on her, she is trustworthy and loving.

RONALD CYR

Tall, dark and handsome, Ronnie is the smiling bashful Senior with the talent for drawing. His sincere and modest disposition have endeared him to all his classmates.



ZELMA VOISINE

Many a class meeting, many an assembly, many a discussion has been kept alive by Zelma's arguments. She has a store of them, always to the point and can win you over to her viewpoint. She will not be an idle bystander when the important questions of life are brought up.

ANNE MARTIN

Anne is not the type whose impulses drive her headlong into reckless action. Serene, cheerful, she prefers silence to empty words and useless gestures. Good luck in whatever career you choose.

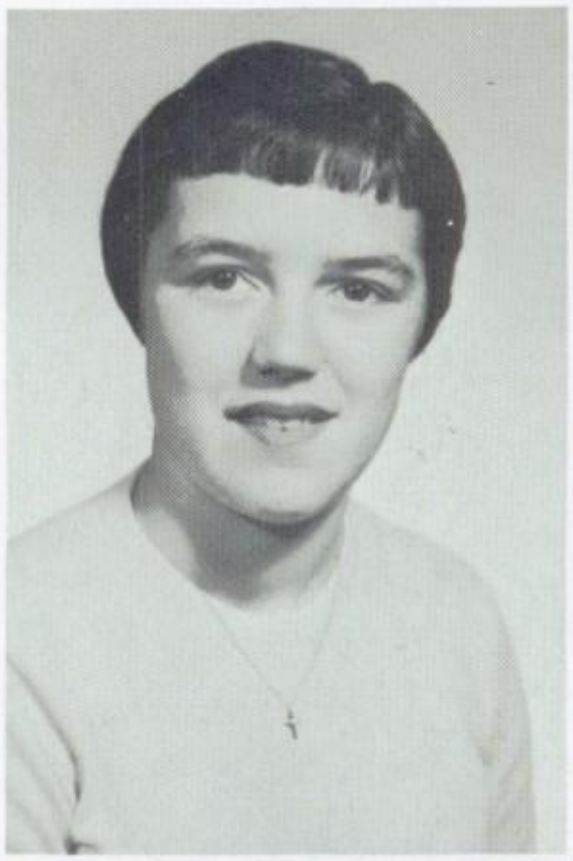
FRANKLIN FRIEL

Frank has been the backbone of the Senior Class. Calm, apparently inactive-all is done on time, in the right way, and very satisfactorily. May he sail on a calm sea to a golden sunset.

CATHERINE McDOUGALL

Cathy's verve and sparkle has added much to the cheerleading squads the last three years. Her enthusiastic handling of hard work, her talent for dancing, her sincere friendly disposition have made her one of the most popular girls in the class.

MARY MARTINA MEGNO



Small in structure but big in heart is Tina. She is a good one for expressing her opinion on any and all subjects. During her years at St. Martin's she has become a very capable typist. She will be a valuable addition to some business office.

JAMES GRAY

Motorcycles and cars mean more to James than books and lessons. Will the future show him to be the pilot of the Titan, the 5500 mile per hour ICBM, available in 1960? Jimmy wherever you go or whatever you do, we know that your friendly persuasive manners will see you through.

LOIS PORTWINE

Lois Anne is the antipode of Aldea. Reticence is not her weakest virtue! Gracious but not grave is her motto. She will succeed. . .to make you lose your temper with her teasing but her infectious laughter, and charm of personality will always succeed in making you forgive her.

NANCY DONLEY

One of the St. Martin's most mischievous students. Her happy-go-lucky manner covers a serious desire to become a registered nurse. She will bring comfort to many and make a nursing career a successful one.

DAVID GUY

To be as optimistic as Dave! and see only the bright side of things! With such a pleasant attitude towards life, no anxieties, worries, or cares, we have no doubt that Dave will live happily whatever fate may bring to him in the future. Were Shakespeare living, he would recognize in him a second Falstaff.

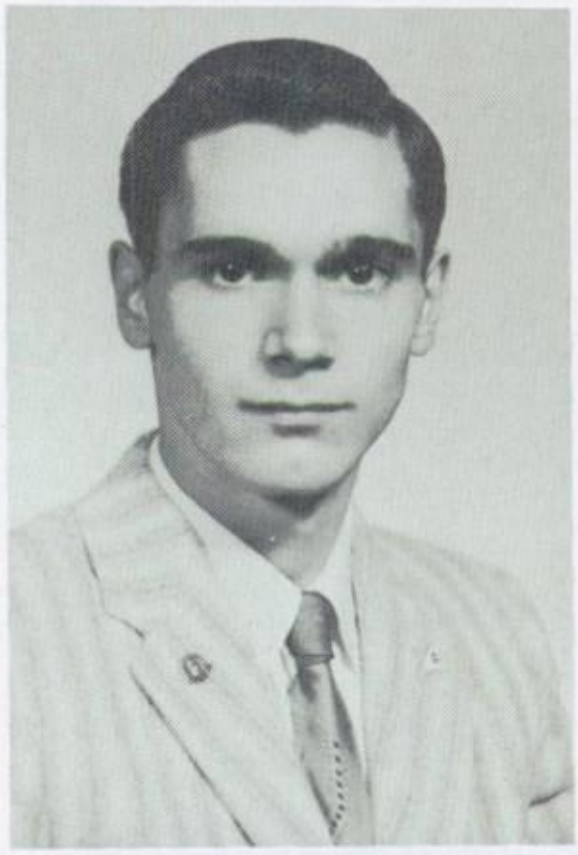
ALDEA WILLETTE

If the proverb "Le bien ne fait pas de bruit" be true, Aldea is a living example of it. She rarely speaks, seldom hurries, and is always ready to give a helping hand. Very few know what will ensue in Aldea's future. She is therefore the envy of her classmates.

JOANNE SAUCIER

Talkative, cheerful, carefree, Joanne is the lark of the Senior Class. What would the Sodality have done without her cooperation? We are sure that Joanne will spread joy and happiness about her---for her jolly dispositions are contagious.

ERNEST LeVASSEUR



Bee's ability to lead will be a great asset in his future career. This plus his ambition to reach the top, tempered by wisdom and age, will make him one of the leaders America needs.

TRINA PELLETIER

Trina wants to see the world, travel far and wide. She will be our future air-line stewardess. She has all the required aptitudes even the knack of being "right on time".

CATHOLIC PRESS MONTH
WEAPONS OF TRUTH—WEAPONS OF LOVE

"February is catholic press month. It is the desire of the Church to focus attention this month on the great need for a strong catholic press." The students of SAINT MARTIN OF TOURS HIGH SCHOOL are not indifferent to this urgent call of their Church. Through the organ of the SAINT THOMAS AQUINAS STUDY CIRCLE, they conduct activities that center around catholic books, magazines, and newspapers.

Oh when the St. Martin's boys fall into line,
We're gonna shout, shout, shout, and that's a sign
We're gonna cheer, cheer, cheer to victory,
And may our name go down in St. Martin's History
We're gonna bring to fame the purple, white and gold
We'll hold our heads real high and all our actions bold
Because we're proud to say that we are cheering for
The famous SAINTS forever more. RAH! RAH!
